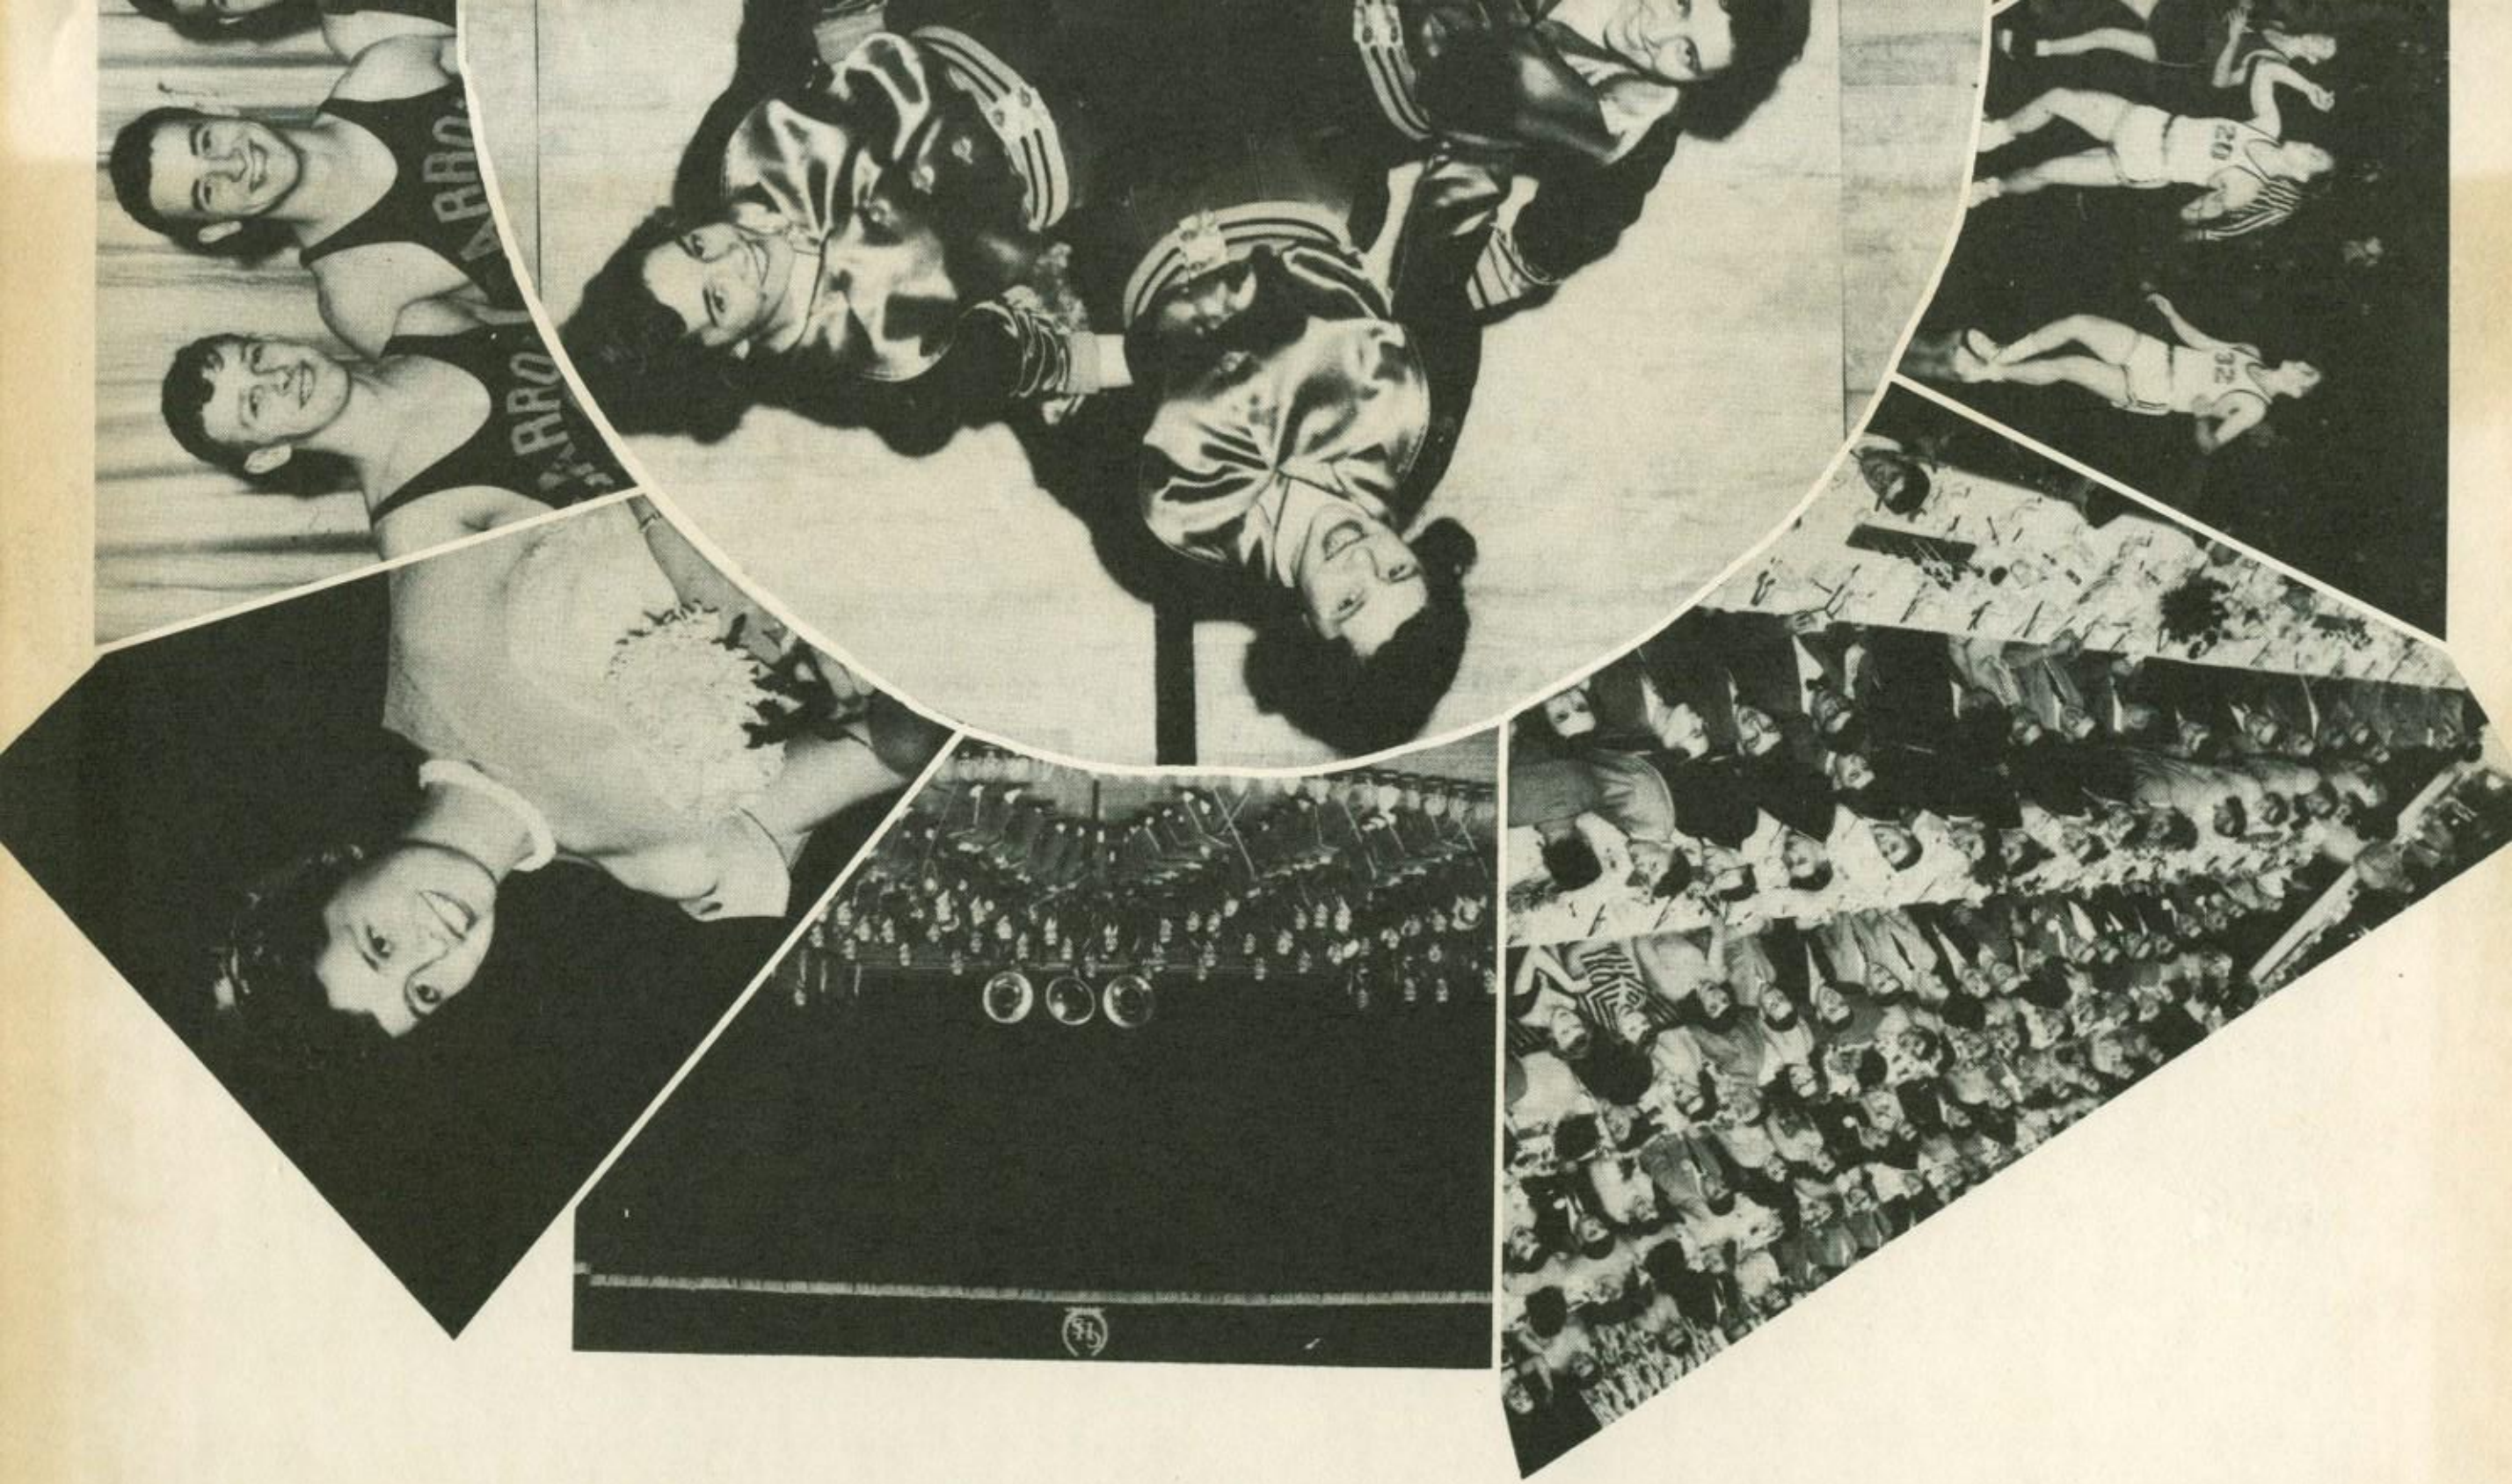
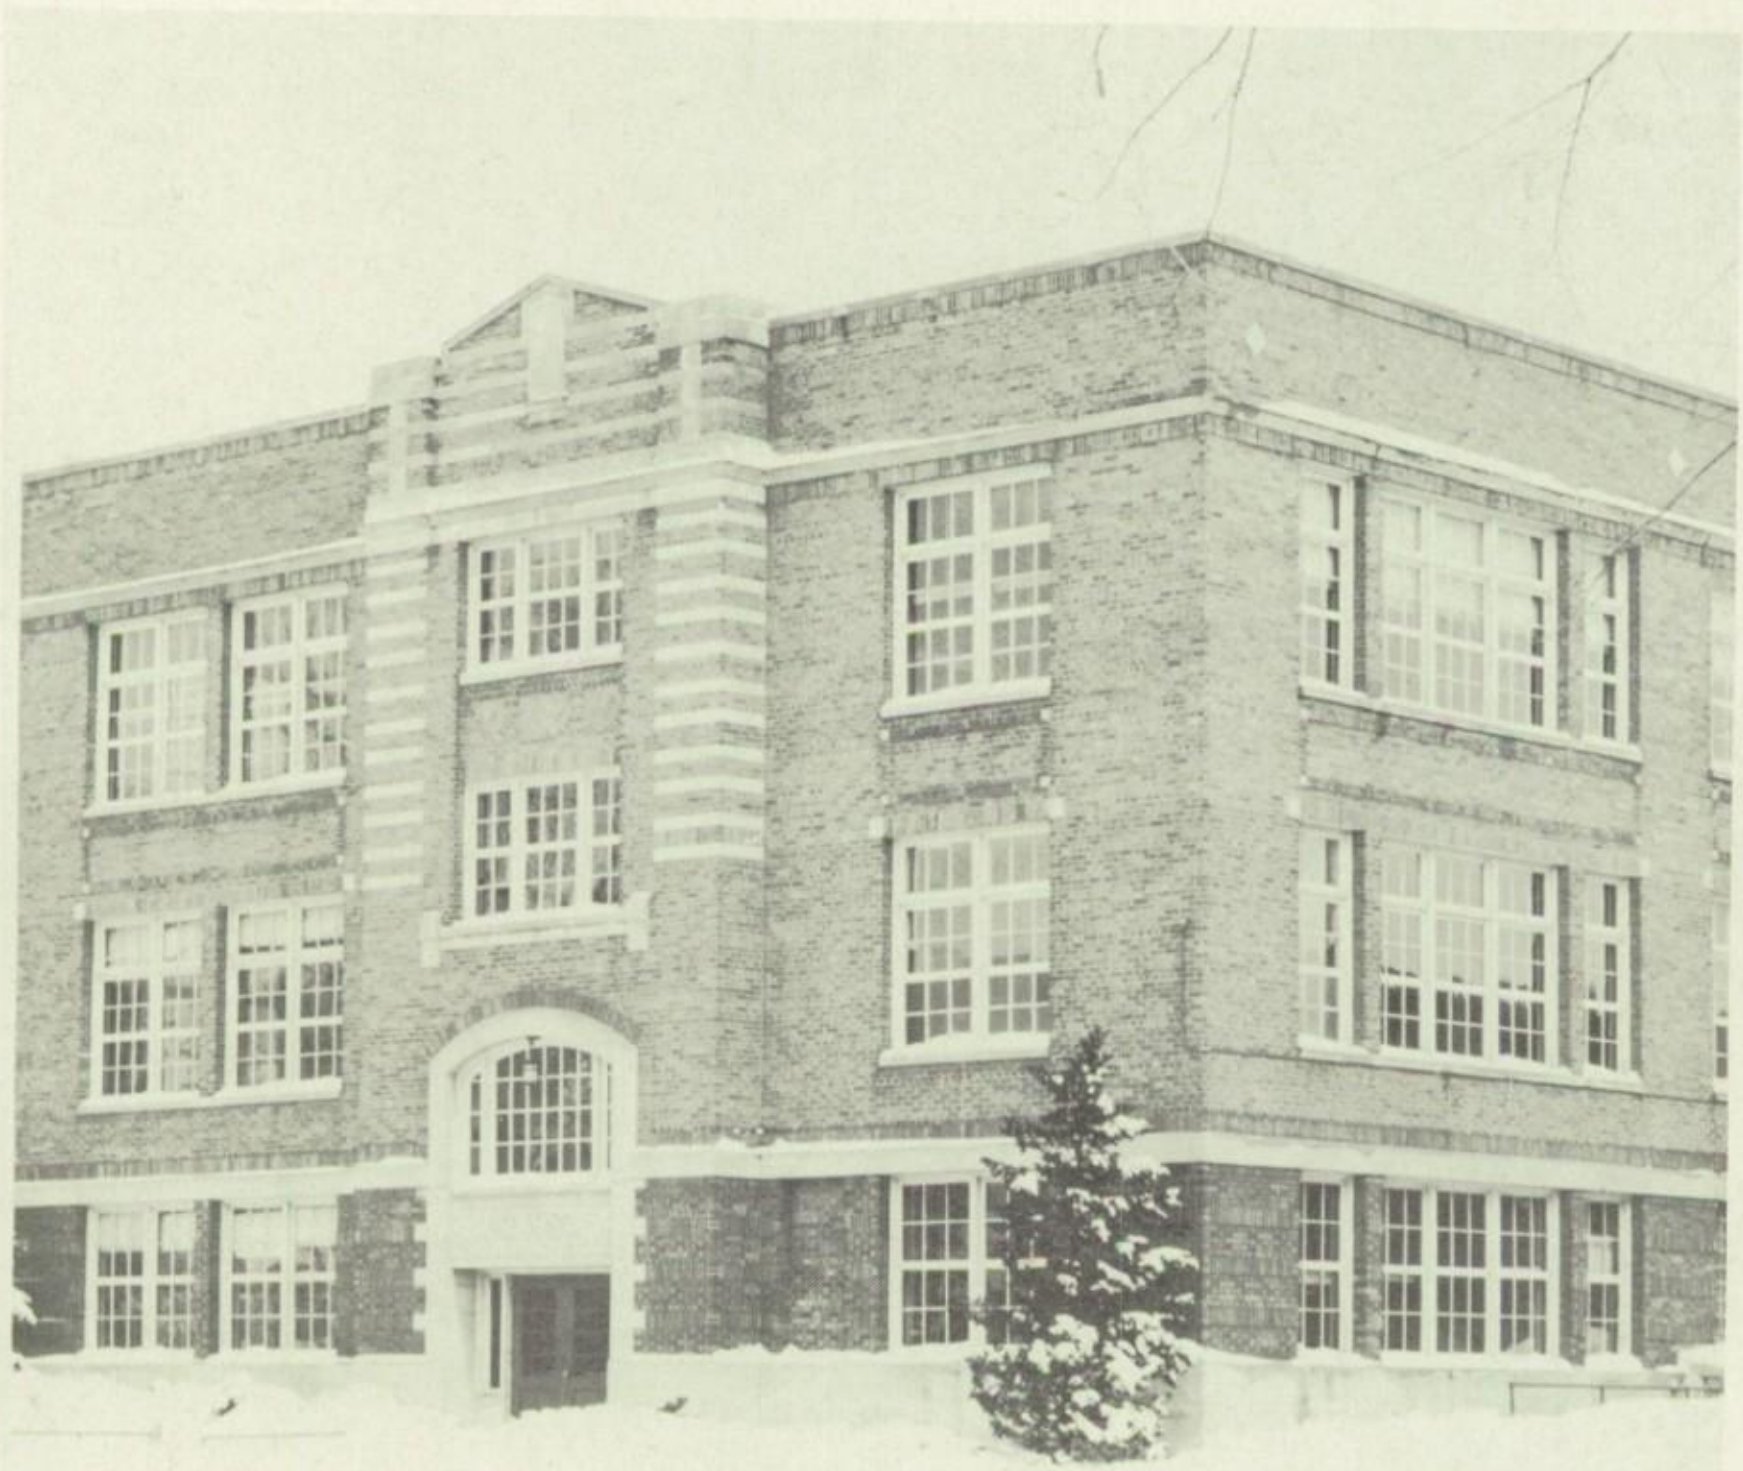
ACE



1953

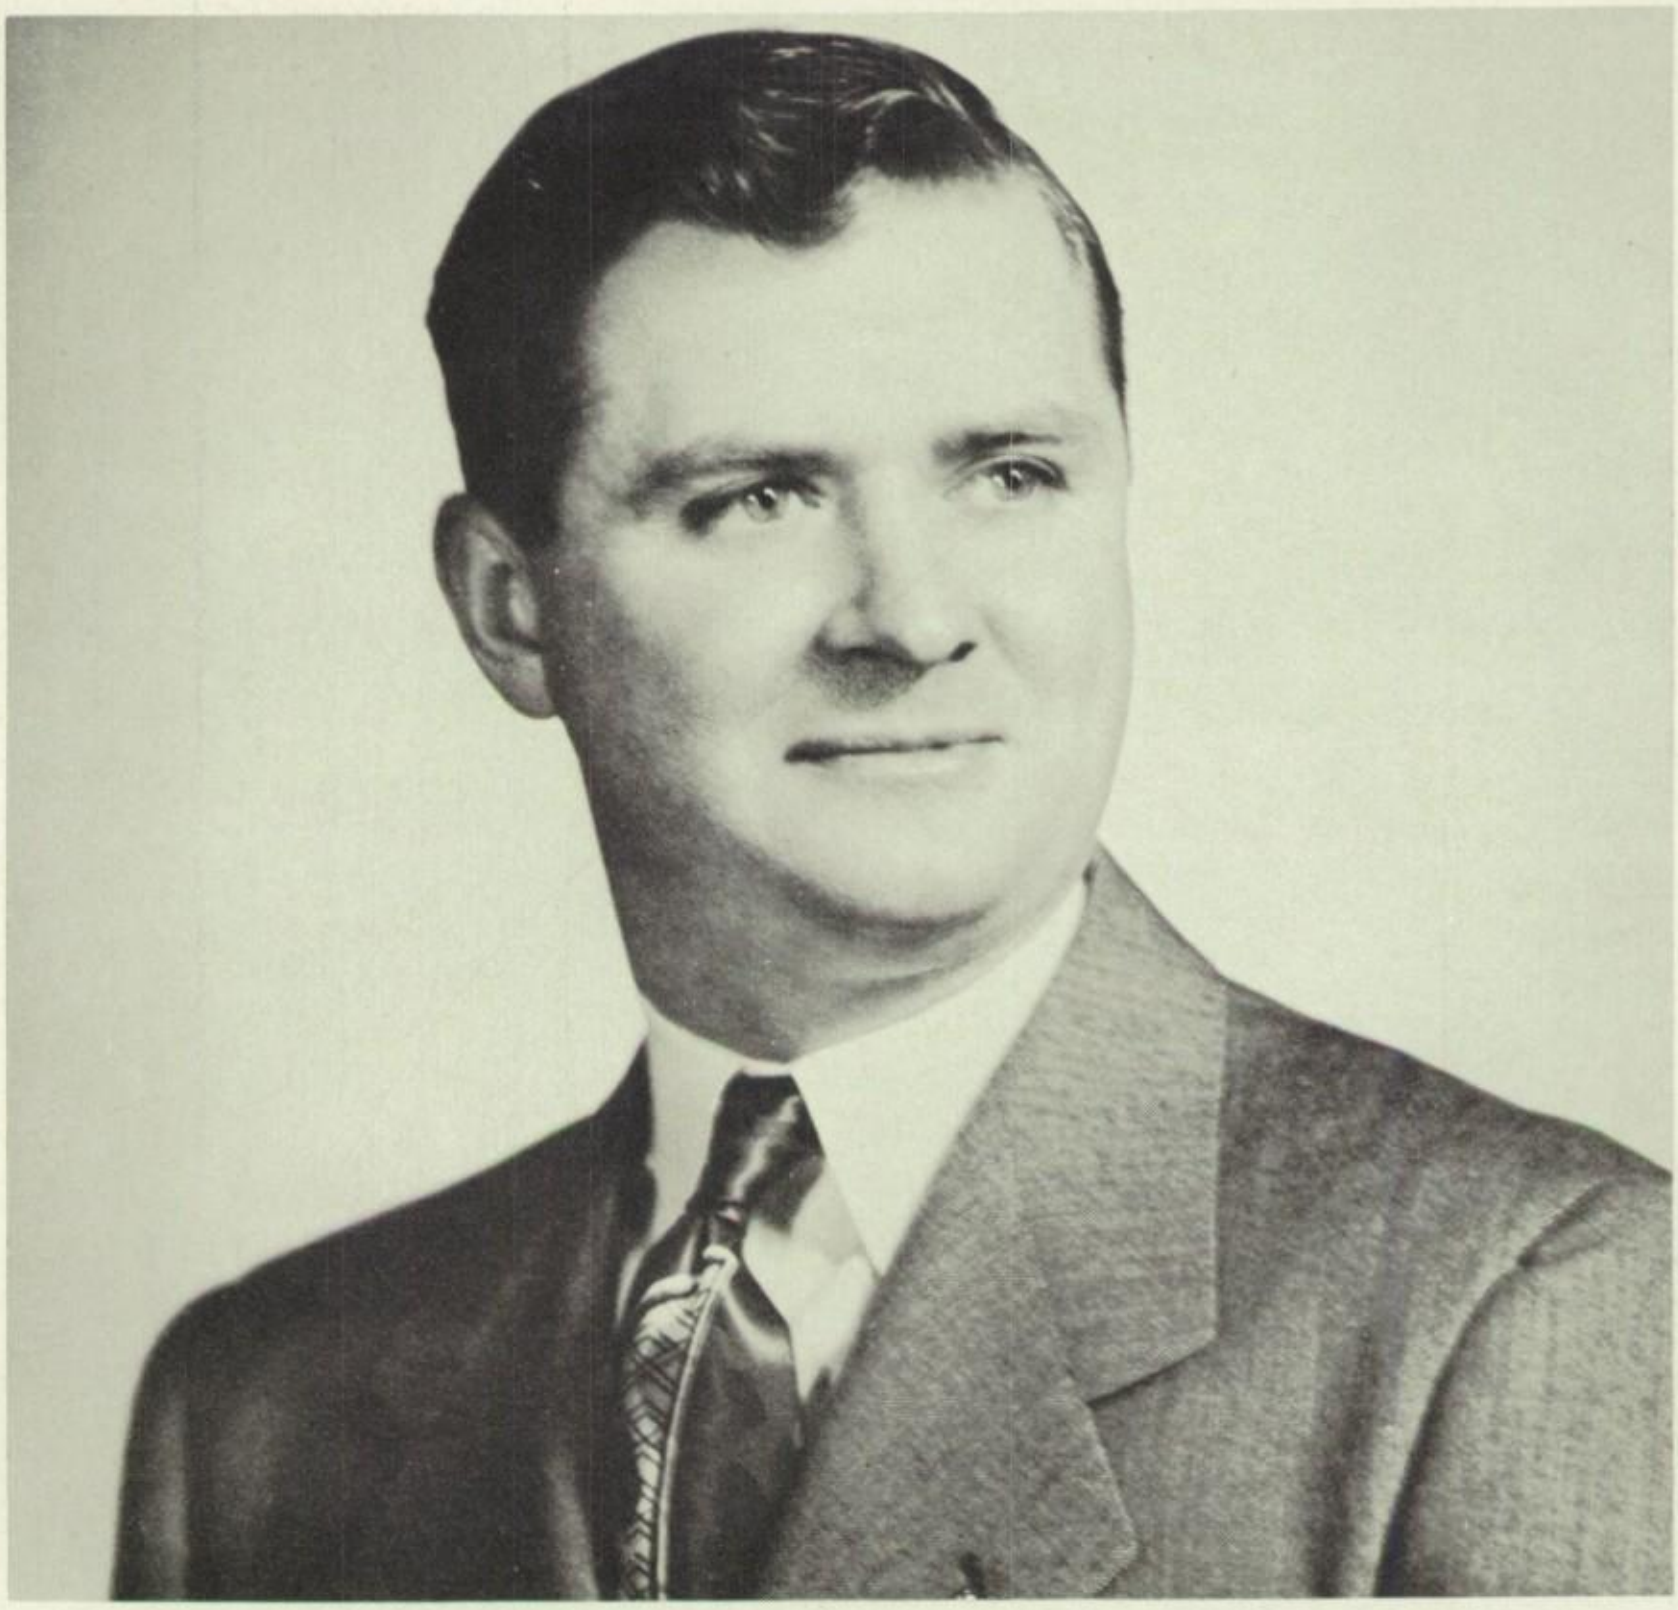


We, the Senior class of 1953 have focused this thirtieth volume of the Ace on the 1952-53 school year. As you leaf through this ACE, we hope you recall some of the pleasant and priceless moments of your high school years, whether they be one or four.

In Memoriam

We the Senior Class dedicate this page of the 1953 Ace to the memory of the deceased Marie Cunningham.

In her thirty-five years of teaching mathematics at C. H. S. she not only taught us present students but also many of our parents.



In Gratitude —

. . . . for the many things he has done for us in the past three years, we, the senior class of 1953, dedicate this volume of the Ace to Mr. Merritt Jensen.

Flash Backs

Lights! Action! Camera! As the cameras started rolling it was 1949 and we saw a large group of freshmen entering Carroll High School. This entrance was marked by the Mixer, where underclassmen and upperclassmen mingled. This year everyone went Western style. As the show progressed, a few brave "frosh" asked girls to the Military Ball. This first episode of the four part serial ended with the big freshman picnic at Swan Lake, where everyone was loaded into a large truck to be taken out to have a good time.

Chapter II of the serial began with a group of sophomores entering the school more bravely and self-assured. Those few sophomores who were in the band went to the Ak-Sar-Ben Rodeo to perform for the first time in several years. The music department then gave an operetta, "The Hither and Thither of Danny Dither," in which many sophomores took part. To end this chapter, the soph's also held their picnic at Swan Lake.

Chapter III opened with the juniors, real upperclassmen, making big plans for ordering their class rings. Before they arrived, however, the Junior Class Play, "Jumping Jupiter," was given. Spring came and the juniors, who had been selling refreshments at football and basketball games, busily made plans to entertain the seniors at the Jr.-Sr. Banquet. The theme, "Tulip Time," was successfully carried out with windmills, Dutch girls and boys, and tulips on the tables. A Dutch scene adorned the fireplace mantel. To climax this year, the junior class had their picnic at Lake View.

The last, and probably the most exciting, chapter of this serial began with the seniors giving the Mixer for another freshman class. The year progressed and the seniors were kept busy. Pictures had to be taken and hand-ed out, cards exchanged, and announcements sent. The first thing to break into this steady stream of graduation preparations was the Senior Class Play, "Dear Ruth," taken from the stage play of the same name. Shortly after this was over, the juniors treated the seniors at the Jr.-Sr. Banquet, but this time the Class of '53 was the royalty. The theme, "Moonlight and Roses," was very beautifully carried out with rose-covered trellises and a scene of a girl standing in the moonlight. The seniors had their annual Skip Day at Swan Lake because they lacked transportation to go elsewhere. To everyone's surprise, however, it was loads of fun. As May 22 rolled around, the seniors were excused from school--a week early to "rest up" for the big day. On May 24 the seniors donned caps and gowns for Baccalaureate, the first big step on the last mile. After four years of waiting, GRADUATION finally came on May 28 and school was over.

The last chapter of the serial has ended, but much is yet to come for the Class of '53.

Football

The 1953 Tigers, led by Co-captains Joe Lappe and Milton Mein, compiled a record of 5 wins and 4 losses. All of the losses were hard fought and well played games and should not take anything away from the hard fighting Tigers' record.

The Tigers got off to a good start by handing a strong Perry team a 7-0 defeat. The first set-back of the season came at the hands of a shifty East Waterloo team, 19-13. The Bill Chambers' coached crew showed a lot of power and promise in the game with East, and came through a week later to avenge their defeat by beating Harlan 21-0. Entertaining the Manning Club on their home field the Tigers eased to a 32-0 victory. The Tigers did not disappoint the Homecoming Queen, Mary Lou Leiting, or the large crowd with their 34-13 victory over Denison. A nifty Boone outfit set the Tigers on their heels 19-8. The next week the locals were successful in subduing a surprisingly powerful Ida Grove team 13-2. Sac City overwhelmed the locals by unveiling a speedy bunch of backfield men to defeat the favored Tigers 26-7. Carroll staged a comeback a week later to give the Conference Champs, Jefferson, 48 minutes of rough, tough football. The Tigers bowed, however, 13-0.

Although there were 11 seniors on this year's Varsity squad, prospects for next year are very good. We of '53 would like to wish them the best of luck.

The Carroll Tigers, coached by Ival Outhouse, completed the 1952-53 season with a record of twelve wins against nine losses--many of which were very close games.

They got off to a good start winning seven of their first nine games with the defeats going to Fort Dodge and Ames, both double A schools. A chance to win the Conference Championship looked pretty rosy until Floyd Wilkens was lost for eight weeks due to an injury. From here on out the thinclads were unpredictable, winning only about every other game. They finished fourth in the conference face with a 5-5 record.

The Tigers drew Glidden in the sectional tournament and were beaten in an overtime thriller 72-70 to finish the season.

Only four seniors (one a regular)--Roland Heuton, Roger Heuton, John Axon, and Arlo Stein--will be lost by graduation; so, much will be expected from next year's team.

In the opening meet, the Carroll Grapplers defeated Audubon by a score of 33-8. In the next meet at Algona the Tigers were handed a 16-31 defeat, but came back to beat Des Moines Tech 22-17. Fort Dodge won the next meet from Carroll 25-12. Then Carroll won two straight meets beating Hartley 20-15 and trouncing Tee Jay of Council Bluffs 44-2. The next meet was at Council Bluffs and the Tigers had to be satisfied with a 17-17 tie. Then our grapplers won a more decisive victory over Hartley 32-9, but Des Moines Tech avenged their earlier defeat 33-17. Carroll closed their season with a 23-13 victory over Audubon.

Led by co-captains, Leon Tigges and Bob Champion, Carroll had a record of 6 wins, 1 tie, and 3 losses going into the district wrestling meet.

Four grapplers qualified to go to the state meet at Iowa State Teachers College. They were Merle Danner in the 120 lb. class, Ed Champion in the 145 lb. class, Jerry Lux in the 165 lb. class, and Bob Champion in the heavyweight class.

Tracks

The 1953 track squad, coached by Cole Collinge, ended a very successful season after finishing third in the Mid-West Conference Meet and second in the district. The co-captains were Denny Reicks and Jim Bengfort. The squad was made up almost entirely of sophomores and juniors, having only three seniors. All four relay teams will be intact for next year and a highly successful season is anticipated.

Outstanding this year was Wally Gute, who achieved top honors with the football throw in the Class A State Meet.

These fifteen thinclads qualified for the state meet: Jerry Tigges, Denny Reicks, Steve Huffman, Junior Hein, Jerry Davis, Bob Champion, Larry Sabus, Ed Champion, Don Schenkelberg, Gary Hackett, Bob Short, Floyd Wilkens, Denny Schleisman, Floyd Wernimont, and Wally Gute.

Other members of the squad are: Fred Booth, Jim Bengfort, Don Winn, Gayden Perry, Ed Lamb, Mickey Arts, Ralph Kanne, Bill McCarville, and Dwain Quandt.

"Almost Eighteen" by Dana Thomas was the play presented by the junior class this year. This was a riotous--heartwarming comedy in three acts, capably directed by Mr. Bottolfson.

The plot of "Almost Eighteen" is simple, but charming. It concerns a teen-age boy named Eddie Barry - JOHN NOCKELS, who wants to be a crooner like Johnnie Ray. Mr. and Mrs. Barry - DICK PASCOE and LUETTA JOHNSON object as does Debra Barry, Eddie's engaged sister played by PEGGY BLESSINGTON.

Also contributing to the merriment was Eddie's girl friend, Ann Sherman, played effectively by SONDRA ROMBOUGH. FRED BOOTH portrayed Uncle George in a sympathetic part as a lazy, but good-natured man who winds up marrying a music teacher, Mable Warren - NYLA WARFORD. Two of Eddie's friends were Tommy Granville and Sally Davidson - STEVE HUFFMAN and MARLENE BOELL. Other members of the cast were Mrs. Granville - SHIRLEY WENCK, Miss Dalrymple - MARCIA GRUBER, and Mr. Merrit - RICHARD RAUSCH.

"Almost Eighteen" was a success not only because of the long hours put in by the cast and stage crew, but also because of its engaging tale of youth--its joys and heartaches.

Senior Class Play

SEATED: B. Sapp, Y. Manning, D. Heman, S. Dorman, G. Prince, D. Reicks. SECOND ROW: D. Morgan, N. Smith, J. Feld, D. Jung, J. Schoenjahn, C. Murray, E. Rose. THIRD ROW: H. Hagemann, J. Leahy, A. Stein, B. Champion, J. Maze.

"Dear Ruth" was the Senior Class Play selection presented on Thursday evening, April 30. It was under the direction of Mr. W. D. Bottolfson.

This two-act comedy concerns Ruth Wilkins - SHIRLEE DORMAN, who is engaged to Albert Kummer - JAY FELD. Ruth lives with her family in Kew Gardens, New York. Her father Judge Wilkins - JOHN LEAHY, her mother Edith Wilkins - DARLENE JUNG, and her trouble-making teenage sister Miriam Wilkins - DOROTHY HEMAN.

The punch-line comes when Lt. William Seawright - ARLO STEIN comes home from World War II to ask for Ruth's hand in marriage. Ruth, of course, doesn't know him because Miriam has been writing to him and signing Ruth's name.

After much laughter and many tears, Ruth marries Bill Seawright.

Completing the cast were Martha Seawright - YVONNE MANNING, Bill's sister; Master Sergeant Chuck Vincent - DERYL MORGAN, Bill's friend; Harold Klobbermeyer - DENNY REICKS, another member of the armed services with whom Miriam has been corresponding; and Dora - GRACE PRINCE, the maid.

Much diligent work by members of the cast and the stage crew added to the success of "Dear Ruth'.

Royalty

First to reign over the nigh school events was Mary Lou Leiting, Homecoming Queen. Her attendants were Yvonne Manning (left) and Doris Goecke (right).

The second event over which royalty reigned was the Valentine Dance. The G. A. A. chose Roland Heuton as Glamour Guy. His attendants were John Axon, Roger Heuton, Arlo Stein, and Milton Mein.

ANDERSON BROTHERS & CO. --- EDDIE QUINN CLOTHIERS

The annual Carroll Relays was the third event that royalty reigned over. The track team chose Doris Goecke as their queen. Her attendants were Sheila Morrison (left) and Nancy Smith (right).

Royalty next reigned over the fourth event of the busy school year, the Military Ball. The band chose Queen Sheila Morrison and King John Leahy to rule this annual formal dance.

BEITERS --- H. R. CLEANERS

As summer outfits came into style again, Carroll High held its fifth big event, th May Dance. Mary Lou Leiting was chosen May Queen. Her attendants were Yvonne Manning (left) and Doris Goecke (right).

To keep up the family tradition, LaVonne Leiting was chosen F.F.A. Sweetheart. Her two older sisters held this position previously. LaVonne's attendants were Marlene Boell, Lee Ann Boldt, and Doris Goecke.

Moon Explorers' Visit

Flash: (New York City) The first excursion to the moon has just been completed. We are astounded to see that this excursion was made by two of the members of the Class of '53. Before removing their space suits they decided to hop into their rocket ship to see what their classmates are doing ten years after graduation.

"Before we leave the airport two mechanics, JERALD KNOBBE and ROBER WENCK check our rockets. We are ready to take off. Whooooosh! As we leave the vicinity of New York we see the canopy lights of the Met lighting up the sky with their notice of the new opera, starring the famous soprano, JUNE JUERGENS, and DENNIS REICKS, the noted baritone. Below us we now see the newly developed Brooklyn Bridge, designed by BOB LAMB and BOB SAPP. As we pass the TWA flight from Chicago to New York, we see the pilot, JOHN AXON, and his co-pilot, DERYL MORGAN, giving orders to stewardess YVONNE MANNING. At Indianapolis we pass over the famous speedways where JOHN HESS has just broken the latest speed record. As the last rays of the sun fade in the west, we catch a glimpse of Chicago where we decide to spend the night. When asking our taxi driver, DUANE SCHACHTNER, for the leading hotel, he replies, 'The Stevens Hotel, owned and operated by JERRY BELL and JOE LAMBERTZ.' We arrived just in time to have the hostess of the dining room, SHIRLEE DORMAN, show us to our table before the floor show starts. Tonight's show features the "Four Jills and a Jack," starring PAT HOFFMAN, JOAN SMOUSE, JOAN SAWYER, JANET ROBERTSON, and DENNY PUDENZ. Also included on this marvelous program is the famous comedian, BOB ELLIS, who has taken the late Groucho Marx's place. As we leave the dining room and go to the desk to leave a call for 9 o'clock with the switchboard operator, DORIS BERNS, we see the famous celebrity, JIM BENGFORT, and his agent, MILTON MEIN, checking into the hotel with room manager, FRED BOHLING. The next morning after eating a hearty, but delicious, breakfast served by waitress, LOUISE JACOBSON, we watch GREGORY JENNINGS drive his huge Greyhound bus up to the hotel. We are surprised to see the noted author of children's stories, DARLENE JUNG, and her artist-husband get off the bus. We notify the head of the hotel's secretarial agency, LA JUNE BOCK, to send us one of their competent secretaries--either DOROTHY WERNER, GRACE PRINCE, PAT CALLAWAY, or MARILYN BRUGGEMAN. After dictating several important business letters, we again make preparations to leave the "windy city" of Chicago. Before leaving, however, we send flowers to our families from JAY FELD's Flourist Shoppe. BOB NEUERBURG and DICK VENTEICHER have the motor of our rocket ship tuned up and we climb into it to leave. As we zoom up into the sky, we skim over DON ROSE's Super DeLuxe Television Antennas Shop where antennas are sold and installed by NORMAN BUELT and KENNETH POTTEBAUM. In passing over the rich farm lands of Iowa we see the spacious farms of wealthy owners JOHN MAZE and RAY POTTEBAUM. They are run by workers from the Farm Management Bureau operated by LOREN LECHTENBERG and GORDON MOBLEY. In Nebraska we see FRANKLIN TIGGES and DON LOYNACHAN harvesting their wheat crop. We then swoosh over the flat cattle lands of Colorado and Wyoming where we see the ranches of BOB CHAMPION and JIM SCHRECK. As we approach the beautiful city of Denver, we see a billboard with two familiar smiles on it. These smiles which are advertising tooth paste belong, of course, to MARY LOU LEITING and DORIS GOECKE. We land because we have learned that big-game hunter ROLAND WILT has returned from a hunting expedition in Africa with a slight case of jungle fever and we want to visit him in hopes of cheering him up. Receptionist JOAN KLINK tells us that he is in room 214. As we are passing through the halls we see MARLENE SNOOK and VIOLET WENCK, who have taken time out from their married lives to help out at the hospital as Nurses Aids. The head nurse SHEILA MORRISON asks nurse EUNICE ROSE to show us around. During the tour of the hospital we see the famous surgeon, JOHN LEAHY being assisted in a difficult brain operation by nurse CAROL ANN HEUTON. We continue wandering through the halls alone because our nurse had to assist in the brain operation. We see EARL BIELMAIER in the laboratory filling prescriptions for the hospital pharmacy. We then leave the hospital and go to the airport to continue looking for our classmates from '53. There we see retail buyer, CHARLES FRY making reservations with reservationist JANET SCHOENJAHN. We take off and continue westward and southward where we pass over the citrus fruit farms of HUBERT HAGGEMAN and ROLAND KUKER. We see trucks driven by ROLAND DANIEL and NORBERT KITT laden with the delicious fruit. They are leaving for one of JIM FAY and JIM FELD'S chain of grocery stores. We continue on our course until we land in Los Angeles where we head at once for H. S. H. Movie Studios, run by HENRY HEMAN, ARLO STEIN, and GENE HAPPE. Here we see CAROLE MURRAY hopefully awaiting the results of her screen test. We also learn of the two great coaches at U. C. L. A., ROLAND and ROGER HEUTON. We are surprised to see NANCY SMITH, president of the college, conferring with teachers, DOROTHY HEMAN and SHIRLEY OTTO. We then head homeward feeling warm pleasure at seeing our classmates for we have our own lives to plan for. It has been a wonderful experience, but as our excursion must come to an end, so must this story."

By the way, our lucky and adventurous moon-men were none other than DAN WATERS and LEON TIGGES.
